

My wife and I appreciate the efforts that NJ has taken to reduce the number of unwanted and solicitation calls to our home. Please do not weaken the state's success to date by changing or causing to change the current provisions of the law.